If so, we want to hear from you with their names and the service to which they were attached. To play our part in ensuring they are never forgotten, we will mark their contribution by naming them as part of our ceremonial. You can contact us with their details at: clerk@aldwickparishcouncil.gov.uk or by phoning 01243-263330.

Details of our special Armistice/Remembrance Day Service below.

A very special Remembrance Day

Next month marks a very special celebration – the end of the First World War and Armistice Day. At the eleventh day of the eleventh month, a defeated Germany finally surrendered. The bravery of our soldiers in that war and in all conflicts will be remembered by our community in the Millennium Gardens at the Parish Council offices. It promises to be a truly moving occasion. This year, both Armistice Day and Remembrance Sunday happen on the same day and we do hope that as many residents as possible will come along to pay tribute to the bravery of our armed forces, without whom we would not enjoy our freedom and democracy. Assemble at 10.15 a.m. on Sunday 11th November.

Consult the Oracle Want to know what the weather's going to be like in Aldwick? Or to check what time the tide comes in? You don't want to take your dog for a walk when the tide is high; so if you need to know the tide times, consult the oracle! No, we're not talking about a Greek myth. You can find this info on our Parish website. Lines of traffic due to roadworks are a nuisance too, but by checking out our website you can discover what road-works are planned for the area as we have a direct link to West Sussex County Council's Roadworks and Projects section

If you're new to Aldwick and want to meet your neighbours and find out more about our lovely area, why not come along to the coffee mornings which are held at the Council Offices twice weekly? Coffee Pot is a Tuesday morning event run by the local Baptist Church and is held each Tuesday between 10 a.m. and 11.45 a.m. On Friday morning Willowhale Farm Residents
