

Aldwick Parish Council Monthly Newsletter December 2019/January 2010

Our Remembrance Service

This was held in beautiful weather in the Millennium Gardens on November 11th. A huge number of local people attended and we would like to thank you all for the great turn-out. The short, but moving, ceremony was also attended by Members of Aldwick Parish Council, Arun District Council and West Sussex County Council. Cadets from TS Montrose and members of the British Legion were also present. We were most grateful to be joined by two members of the 12th Regiment of the Royal Artillery; Staff Sergeant Frost and Sergeant Hatton. For the first time we had a representative of the PDSA who laid a wreath on behalf of the animals killed in service. Our photo shows the Raising of the Standards at the ceremony. You can see more photos on our website.

Shopping This Christmas – think local

For those of you, who like us, haven't already bought in your Christmas presents, why not think local? You can find a range of gifts including toiletries, art works and smaller personal presents at various shops in Aldwick and when it comes to buying food, you'll be spoilt for choice.

You can buy your turkey, veggies and yummy Christmas desserts in Aldwick. As for booze and soft drinks, you'll pick up everything you needs at local convenience stores. So before you head off to the supermarket, think Aldwick first!

Christmas Tree

This should be up by time we go to print. The tree will be situated outside the convenience store at Nyetimber Lane, next to the traffic lights. Last year's tree was greatly commended by many of you and we hope that this year's is even more spectacular!

West Sussex Road Safety

West Sussex County Council have asked us to highlight their new Facebook Road Safety page where they will publish road safety messages that will matter to you. So before you set off on that journey, have a look at their facebook page. Type West Sussex Road Safety in the search box.

Happy Christmas & New Year! Aldwick Parish Council Members and Staff would like to wish all residents a very happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year. Opening times for the holiday period will soon be posted on our website.
